Provisions on the prevention of money-laundering and the financing of terrorism

In accordance with the international regulations and the laws and regulations applicable in Luxembourg on the fight against money laundering and terrorist financing, professionals in the financial sector are subject to obligations intended to prevent the use of undertakings for collective investment for the purposes of money laundering and terrorist financing. As such, the SICAV, the AIFM, the Central Administration and any duly mandated person is required to identify subscribers in application of Luxembourg laws and regulations. The SICAV, the AIFM, the Central Administration or any duly mandated person, must require all subscribers to provide any documents and all information that it deems necessary for carrying out this identification.

In the event of delay or failure to provide the documents or information required, the application for subscription (or, as appropriate, for redemption, conversion or transfer) may be refused by the SICAV, the AIFM or by the Central Administration or by any duly mandated person. Neither the SICAV, nor the AIFM or the Central Administration or any other mandated person may be held responsible (1) for refusal to accept an order, (2) for delay in the processing of an order or (3) for the decision to suspend payment in respect of an order accepted when the investor has not provided the requested documents or information or has provided incomplete documents or information.

Shareholders may, moreover, be asked to provide additional or updated documents in compliance with the obligations for on-going control and monitoring according to the applicable laws and regulations.

Restrictions on the subscription and transfer of Shares applicable to US investors

The SICAV has not been or will not be registered in application of the United States Securities Act of 1933 ("Law of 1933") or of any law on transferable securities of any State or political subdivision of the United States of America or of its territories, possessions of other regions subject to the jurisdiction of the United States of America, such as the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico ("United States"), and the Shares of the SICAV can only be offered, purchased or sold in compliance with the provisions of the Law of 1933 and of laws governing transferable securities of said States or others.

Certain restrictions also apply to any subsequent transfer of Shares of the SICAV to or on behalf of US persons (US Persons, as defined by Regulation S of the Law of 1933, hereinafter "US Persons"), i.e. to any resident of the United States, any legal entity, corporation or partnership or any other entity created or organised under the laws of the United States (including any asset of such a person created in the United States or organised in accordance with the laws of the United States). The SICAV is not and will not be registered under the United States Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, in the United States.

Shareholders must immediately inform the SICAV if they are or become US Persons or if they hold classes of Shares for or on behalf of US Persons or else if they hold classes of Shares in violation of any laws or regulations or in circumstances that have or could have unfavourable regulatory or fiscal consequences for the Sub-Fund or its Shareholders, or against the best interests of the SICAV. If the Board of Directors discovers that a Shareholder (a) is a US Person or holds Shares on behalf of a US Person, (b) holds classes of Shares in violation of any laws or regulations or in circumstances that have or could have unfavourable regulatory or fiscal consequences for the SICAV or its Shareholders, or going against the best interests of the SICAV, the SICAV has the right to execute a forced redemption of the Shares concerned, in accordance with the provisions in the Articles of Incorporation.

Before making an investment decision with respect to Shares of the SICAV, investors should consult their legal, tax and financial advisor, auditor or any other professional advisor.

Restrictions on the distribution of the Shares

The distribution of the Offering Document and of the Shares may be restricted in certain jurisdictions. Persons who are in possession of this Offering Document should seek information from the SICAV and other organisations with regard to such restrictions and are bound to adhere to them.

The Offering Document does not constitute a public offer or invitation to acquire Shares with regard to persons from jurisdictions in which such a public offering of Shares is not authorised or if it could be considered that such an offer is not authorised with regard to that person. Moreover, the fact that the SICAV is registered on the official list of the CSSF may under no circumstances be considered as a positive appreciation by the supervisory authority of the quality of the Shares offered for sale.

However, the Shares may be marketed to professional investors in other member states of the European Union in accordance with the Law of 12 July 2013.

Moreover, the SICAV may apply to be admitted for public distribution in other countries. In the case of the issue and redemption of Shares outside Luxembourg, the local regulations applicable to this matter shall apply.

The SICAV must comply with certain diversification requirements as detailed in Chapter 7. “INVESTMENT AND RESTRICTIONS”. The diversification requirement can however not totally exclude the risks inherent in any investment. The SICAV cannot therefore guarantee that it will achieve its indicative investment objective.

Investments by the SICAV are made by the appointed Investment Manager acting under the control and responsibility of the Board of Directors of the SICAV.

6. INVESTMENT AND RESTRICTIONS

The SICAV is permitted to:

- a) invest up to a maximum of 30% of its net assets in securities of a single type issued by the same issuer.

The SICAV is not permitted to:

- a) short-sell transferable securities, money market instruments or other financial instruments;

The SICAV may use derivative instruments dealt in on a regulated market and/or financial derivative instruments dealt in over-the-counter ('OTC derivative'), provided that :

- a) the counterparties to OTC derivative transactions are first ranking professional institutions subject to prudential supervision, and belonging to the categories approved by the Luxembourg Supervisory Authority and;
- b) the OTC derivatives are subject to reliable and verifiable valuation on a frequency equal to the frequency of the calculation of the net asset value of the shares of the SICAV and can be sold, liquidated or closed by an offsetting transaction at any time at their fair value at the SICAV initiative, and;
- c) the net exposure to a counterparty in an OTC derivative transaction does not exceed 30% of the SICAV's net assets;
- d) derivative instruments and/or OTC derivative transactions are concluded on the basis of market standard international documentation (like ISDA Agreement with its Credit Support Annexes and adequate standard transaction confirmations, or any other market standard documentation as required).

The SICAV may enter into securities lending or borrowing transactions provided that:

- a) The SICAV may only lend and/or borrow securities through a standardized system organized by a recognized clearing institution or through a first class financial institution specializing in this type of transactions and acting as its counterparty.

As intrinsic part of the lending transaction, the SICAV will simultaneously receive full legal title to securities (being Government securities or any other by the parties agreed securities with a market liquidity level comparable to the securities lent) or cash transferred as collateral under a master securities lending agreement such as OSLA, GMSLA, EMA or any internationally recognised master agreement, for an amount at least equal to the securities lent, and this whether the lending transaction be made with a counterparty referred to above, or through Clearstream Banking or Euroclear or through any other recognized clearing institution. Such collateral, which guaranties totally the market value of the securities lent, will be marked to market daily, and its adequacy to the marked to market value of the securities temporarily lent will be achieved by way of margin calls.

- b) Securities lending and borrowing transactions may exceed 50% of the net assets of the SICAV and may exceed 30 days when the SICAV through adequate coverage is entitled at any time to terminate the contract and obtain the restitution of the securities lent;

- c) where the SICAV is exposed to redemption of its own shares, it must take care to ensure that the level of its exposure to 'repo' transactions is such that it is able, at all times, to meet its redemption obligations.

Any of the ISDA, GMSLA, TBMA-ISMA or other internationally recognised Agreement to be concluded by the SICAV for the purpose of its activities will be negotiated by and agreed with the Investment Manager and copies of executed agreements will be held by the Investment Manager.

For purposes of the investments limits listed in this Chapter 7. "INVESTMENT AND RESTRICTIONS", all percentage limitations apply immediately upon purchase or the initial investment, and any subsequent change in any applicable percentage, resulting from market fluctuations, or reasons beyond the control of the SICAV, or disinvestments to meet redemption requests, does not require immediate elimination of any investment from the SICAV's portfolio. However, the SICAV shall adopt as objective for its transactions the remedying of that situation, taking due account of the interests of its shareholders.

7. GENERAL RISK FACTORS

The present section intends to inform investors of certain risks associated with investments in Shares of the SICAV. Investors are informed that the risks listed hereunder may not be exhaustive and investors may be exposed to additional risks not described therein. Moreover, investors holding Shares of a Sub-Fund may be exposed to certain risks whereas it may be exposed to other risks whilst investing in another Sub-Fund. Investors should consult their financial or other professional adviser for further information in this area.

General remarks on risks

An investment in shares of the SICAV is exposed to risks. These risks may include, or be linked to, share and bond risks, exchange rate risk, interest rate risk, credit risk and volatility risk, as well as political risks. Each of these types of risks may also occur in conjunction with other risks. Some of these risk factors are described briefly below. Potential investors must have experience of investing in instruments used in the context of the investment policy concerned.

Investors must, moreover, be fully aware of the risks involved in investing in shares and ensure that they consult their legal, tax and financial adviser, auditor or other adviser in order to obtain complete information on (i) the appropriate nature of an investment in shares, depending on their personal financial and fiscal situation and on their particular circumstances, (ii) the information contained in the present issuing document and (iii) the investment policy of the SICAV, before taking any investment decision.

Other than the potential for capital gains that it provides, it is important to note that an investment in the SICAV also involves the risk of capital losses. The SICAV's shares are instruments the value of which is determined by fluctuations in the prices of the securities or other financial assets owned by the SICAV. The value of the shares can therefore increase or decrease when compared to their initial value.

Potential investors must be aware that there is no guarantee that the investment policy objectives of the SICAV will be achieved.

Market risk

This risk is of a general nature, affecting all types of investment. The trend in the prices of transferable securities is determined mainly by the trend in the financial markets and by the economic development of the issuers, who are themselves affected both by the overall situation of the global economy and by the economic and political conditions prevailing in each country.

Interest rate

Investors must be aware that an investment in the SICAV's shares may be exposed to interest rate risks. These risks occur when there are fluctuations in the interest rates of the main currencies of each security or other financial assets of the SICAV.

Currency risk

The value of investments may be affected by a variation in exchange rates in case the currency of a given share class is different from the currency of all or part of the investments of the SICAV.

Credit risk

Investors must be fully aware that an investment in the SICAV may involve credit risks. Debt securities and debt instruments involve an issuer-related credit risk. The rating given by recognized rating agencies may be an indication of the level of credit risk. Generally, debt securities and debt instruments issued by entities that have a low rating are considered to be securities or instruments that bear a higher credit risk, with a probability of the issuer defaulting, than those of issuers with a higher rating. When the issuer of debt securities and debt instruments finds itself in financial or economic difficulty, the value of the debt securities and debt instruments (which may fall to zero) and the payments made for these debt securities and debt instruments (which may fall to zero) may be affected .

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risks arise when an asset is difficult or impossible to sell. Some assets that the SICAV may invest in, may be difficult or impossible to sell within the desired timescale, or during certain periods. Finally, there is a risk that assets including debt securities and debt instruments traded in a narrow market segment, are subject to high price volatility.

Counterparty risk

When the SICAV enters into OTC contracts, the SICAV may find itself exposed to risks that the counterparty fails to respect its commitments under the terms of the contracts. In the event of the insolvency or default of the counterparty, the SICAV could suffer a loss.

Risks arising from the use of derivatives

Financial derivative instruments are available under the investment policy of the SICAV. The ability to use these derivative instruments may be limited by market conditions and regulatory limits. Participation in financial derivative instruments transactions involves investment risks and transaction costs to which the SICAV would not be subject if the SICAV did not use these instruments. Risks inherent in the use of derivative instruments include, but are not limited to (a) dependence on the Investment Manager to correctly predict movements in the direction of interest rates, securities prices and currency markets; (b) imperfect correlation between the price of the derivative instruments and the movements in the prices of the underlying assets of such derivative instruments; (c) the fact that skills needed to use these instruments are different from those needed to select transferable securities; (d) the possible absence of a liquid secondary market for any particular derivative instrument dealt over-the-counter at any time; and (e) the possible inability of the SICAV to purchase or sell a transferable security at a time that otherwise would be favourable for it to do so, or the possible need for the SICAV to sell a transferable security at a disadvantageous time. When the SICAV enters into OTC transactions, it is exposed to a potential counterparty risk. The use of derivative instruments implies additional risks due to the leverage thus created. Leverage occurs when a modest capital sum is invested in the purchase of derivative instruments in comparison with the cost of direct acquisition of the underlying assets. The higher the leverage effect is, the more a given variation in the value of the underlying assets will impact the SICAV. The potential benefits and risks of the use of derivative instruments thus increase in parallel with the increase of the leverage effect. Finally, there can be no assurance that the objective sought to be attained through the use of derivative instruments will be achieved.

Leverage

Some issuers of debt securities or debt instruments the SICAV may invests in, may use leverage. The investors should be aware that the resulting risk is naturally higher than the risk

CIGOGNE CLO ARBITRAGE
An investment company with variable share capital (SICAV)
subject to the Luxembourg Law of 13 February 2007

resulting from investments in unleveraged products. Leverage will amplify both positive and negative returns.

In addition, the SICAV may use leverage in order to finance its investments. The investors should be aware that the use of leverage by the SICAVSICAV will add to the leverage used for the investments and thus create additional risk. Interest rate and currency risks may increase the volatility of the SICAVSICAV and may positively or negatively impact the returns.

Valuation Risk

Some of the target assets the Sub-Fund may invest in, may have poor liquidity so that these assets may be overvalued and be worth less than expected when it mature or will be sold. Accordingly there is a risk that the valuations of the Sub-Fund may not reflect the fair market value of such assets at a specific valuation point, which could result in significant losses or inaccurate pricing for the Sub-Fund. Factors contributing to valuation risk can include incomplete data, market instability, financial modelling uncertainties and poor data analysis by the people responsible for valuation

Volatility

The investors should be aware that the markets the target funds are investing in, may have a more speculative and volatile character in the respect of the investment policy than certain traditional markets.

Investors should remember that the price of Shares and any income from them may fall as well as rise and that Shareholders may not get back the full amount invested. Past performance is not necessarily a guide to future performance and Shares should be regarded as a medium to long-term investment.

8. AIFM

The SICAV has designated CIGOGNE MANAGEMENT S.A. to act as its AIFM.

CIGOGNE MANAGEMENT S.A. was incorporated in the Grand-Duchy of Luxembourg on July 6, 2004 as a public limited company ("Société Anonyme") and is registered at the Luxembourg Trade and Companies Register under n° B 101 547. The AIFM has its registered office in Luxembourg at 9 Boulevard Prince Henri L-1724 Luxembourg and is subject to the provisions of Chapter 15 of the Law of 17 December 2010 and is authorized as alternative investment fund manager in accordance with Chapter 2 of the Law of 12 July 2013.

In order to cover any potential professional liability risks resulting from its activities as AIFM, the AIFM has subscribed a professional indemnity insurance in accordance with the provisions of the Law of 12 July 2013 and the AIFM Regulation.

Description of the AIFM functions

In accordance with Annex I of the Law of 12 July 2013, the AIFM performs investment management activities (i.e. portfolio and/or risk management). In addition, the AIFM performs administrative duties (including in particular valuation and pricing, the maintenance of the shareholder register and the issue and redemption of shares), marketing and other activities related to the assets of the SIF.

The details of the AIFM's rights and duties towards the SICAV are governed by the Law of 12 July 2013 and the Management Agreement.

Description of the delegated AIFM functions

In accordance with Law of 13 February 2007 as well as the Law of 12 July 2013 and following the approval by the CSSF, the AIFM delegates, under its responsibility, the central administration duties to BANQUE DE LUXEMBOURG which itself subcontracts part of its duties, but under the responsibility of the BANQUE DE LUXEMBOURG, to EFA.

In addition, the AIFM may delegate, under its responsibility the following aforementioned duties:

- the portfolio management duties to one or more Portfolio Manager(s); and/or
- the distribution of the SICAV's shares to one or more Distributor(s).

When selecting and appointing a delegate, the AIFM shall exercise all due skill, care and diligence as required by the Law of 12 July 2013 to ensure that it entrusts such functions to counterparties with adequate skills, knowledge and expertise.

Description of the risk management function

The AIFM has established and maintains a permanent risk management function that implements effective risk management policies and procedures in order to identify, measure, manage and monitor on an on-going basis all risks relevant to the SICAV's investment strategy to which the SICAV is or may be exposed.

Furthermore, the risk management process ensures an independent review of the valuation policies and procedures as per Article 70 (3) of AIFM Regulation.

The AIFM applies a comprehensive process based on qualitative and quantitative risk measures to assess the risks of the SICAV, in particular market risks, credit risks, liquidity risks, counterparty risks and operational risks.

The global exposure of the SICAV will be calculated through the commitment methodology taking into account the current value of the underlying assets, the counterparty risk, future market movements and the time available to liquidate the positions.

Additionally the SICAV may use the Value-at-Risk (VaR) methodology for reporting purpose only. The Value-at-Risk methodology provides a measure of the potential loss that could arise over a given time interval under normal market conditions, and at a given confidence level.

According to the commitment methodology, financial derivative instruments are converted into equivalent positions in the underlying asset while taking into consideration any netting and hedging effects. In addition, the commitment methodology considers any other arrangements that are likely to generate incremental exposure to the AIF such as reinvestment of borrowings, repurchase agreements or securities lending.

The AIFM supervises the compliance of these provisions in accordance with the requirements of applicable CSSF circulars or regulations or any other European authority authorized to issue related regulation or technical standards.

Liquidity Management

The AIFM has put in place an appropriate liquidity management system which enables it to monitor the liquidity risk of the SICAV. The AIFM ensures that the investment strategy, the liquidity profile and the redemption policy are consistent. The SICAV may also use tools and arrangements necessary to handle illiquid assets (such as gates and side pockets).

Determination of the leverage

The Factsheet of the SICAV will determine the circumstances in which the SICAV may use leverage, the types and sources of leverage permitted and the associated risks, any restrictions on the use of leverage and any collateral and asset reuse arrangements, and the maximum level of leverage which the AIFM is entitled to employ.

- (c) a written contract between the Depositary and the SICAV, expressly allows a discharge of the Depositary's liability and establishes the objective reason to contract such a discharge.

Further, where the law of a third country requires that certain Custodiable Assets are held in custody by a local entity and there are no local entities that satisfy the delegation requirements laid down in AIFM Directive and AIFM Regulation, the Depositary can be discharged itself of liability provided that the following conditions are met:

19. OBLIGATIONS AND CONSTRAINTS RESULTING FROM FATCA AND CRS

This chapter provides general information on the impacts on the SICAV and on its shareholders of two main regulations (FATCA and CRS), both ultimately aiming at combatting tax evasion. Shareholders and prospective shareholders in the SICAV are recommended to consult with their own tax advisors regarding the implications that FATCA and/or CRS will or would have on them by investing in the SICAV.

General introduction on FATCA

The Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (“FATCA”) in the United States (“U.S.”) requests non-U.S. financial institutions (“Foreign Financial Institutions” or “FFI”) to report information relating to certain U.S. persons that have accounts with or investments in FFI or that have a beneficial interest in such accounts or investments (the “U.S. Reportable Accounts”).

In accordance with the Luxembourg law of 24 July 2015 transposing the Intergovernmental Agreement concluded on 28 March 2014 between the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg and the United States of America (the “Luxembourg FATCA Regulations”) , Luxembourg FFI are required to annually report through the Luxembourg tax authority (i.e. Administration des Contributions Directes, the “ACD”), as set out in the Luxembourg FATCA Regulations, personal and financial information (the “Information” as further defined in the Data Protection section) related, inter alia, to the identification of, holdings by and payments made (i) to Specified U.S. Persons (“Specified U.S. Persons” as such term is defined in the Luxembourg FATCA Regulations), (ii) to certain non-financial foreign entities (“NFFE”) with a significant ownership by Specified U.S. Persons (iii) and to FFI that do not comply with FATCA (nonparticipating FFIs or “NPFFIs”) (together the “U.S. Reportable Persons”).

The SICAV qualifies as Luxembourg FFI and is therefore subject to the provisions of the Luxembourg FATCA Regulations.

General introduction on CRS

The Standard for Automatic Exchange of Financial Account Information in Tax matters (the “Common Reporting Standard” or “CRS”) as set out in the Multilateral Competent Authority Agreement on the Automatic exchange of Financial Account Information (“MCAA”) signed by Luxembourg on 29 October 2014 and in the Luxembourg law of 18 December 2015 on CRS (together the “Luxembourg CRS Regulations”) requests Luxembourg financial institutions (“Luxembourg FI”) to report information relating to certain persons that have accounts with or investments in FI or that have a beneficial interest in such accounts or investments (the “CRS Reportable Persons”).

In accordance with the Luxembourg CRS Regulations, Luxembourg FI are required to annually report to the ACD, as set out in the Luxembourg CRS Regulations, personal and financial information (the “Information” as further defined in the Data Protection section) related, inter alia, to the identification of, holdings by and payments made (i) to CRS Reportable Persons, and (ii) to controlling persons of certain non-financial entities (“NFE”) which are themselves CRS Reportable Persons.

The SICAV qualifies as Luxembourg FI and is therefore subject to the provisions of the Luxembourg CRS Regulations.

Status of the SICAV under FATCA and under CRS (the “SICAV’s Status”)

The SICAV has elected to be treated as Collective Investment Vehicle for FATCA purposes and as Exempt Collective Investment Vehicle for CRS purposes.

Impact of the SICAV’s Status on shareholders and prospective shareholders

References to the obligation of shareholders and prospective shareholders to provide the SICAV with certain information and documentary evidence shall be understood as meaning an obligation to provide the SICAV or European Fund Administration as delegate of the SICAV’s registrar and transfer agent, with such information and documentary evidence.

The SICAV’s Status implies that the SICAV will only accept certain categories of shareholders as detailed under ‘Eligibility criteria of investors in the SICAV and will not accept a prospective shareholder that has not provided the SICAV with such Information and supporting documentary evidence as required by the Luxembourg FATCA Regulations and/or the Luxembourg CRS Regulations.

Should the prospective shareholder fail to provide the SICAV with the required Information and supporting documentary evidence at the time of receipt of the subscription request by the SICAV, the subscription request will not be accepted and will be postponed for a limited period of time (the “Grace Period”) until the SICAV receives the required Information and supporting documentary evidence. The subscription request will only be accepted if and will be considered to have been received by the SICAV :

- i.at the time the SICAV has received the required Information and supporting documentary evidence during the Grace Period; and
- ii.the SICAV has reviewed such Information and supporting documentary evidence
- iii.and the SICAV has accepted the prospective shareholder.

At the date of this offering document, the Grace Period is set at 90 calendar days but may be adjusted or cancelled at any time at the discretion of the SICAV or if required by applicable laws and regulations.

In such case, following the acceptance of the prospective shareholder, the subscription request will be processed in accordance with the terms of the offering document of the SICAV.

Should the prospective shareholder have failed to provide the SICAV with the required Information and supporting documentary evidence at the end of the Grace Period, the subscription request will be cancelled definitely without any compensation due to the prospective shareholder and any subscription money received will be returned to the prospective shareholder.

Prospective shareholders should be aware that, in addition to the Information and supporting documentary evidence as required by the Luxembourg FATCA Regulations and/or the Luxembourg CRS Regulations, they might be requested to provide such additional information and supporting documentary evidence as required by other applicable laws and regulations, including by the laws and regulations regarding money laundering and financing of terrorism.

In addition, the SICAV’s Status includes the obligation for the SICAV to regularly assess the existing shareholders’ own status under FATCA and CRS. To this extent, the SICAV will request to obtain and verify Information and supporting documentary evidence on all of its shareholders. Upon request of the SICAV, each shareholder agrees and commits to provide certain Information and supporting documentary evidence as required by the Luxembourg FATCA Regulations and/or the Luxembourg CRS Regulations, including, in case of certain categories of NFFE/NFE, Information and supporting documentary evidence regarding such NFFE/NFE's Controlling Persons¹. Similarly, each shareholder agrees and commits to actively inform the SICAV within ninety days of any change to the Information and supporting documentary evidence provided (like for instance a new mailing address or a new residency address) that would affect the shareholder's or, in case of certain categories of NFFE/NFE, the NFFE/NFE's Controlling Persons, own status under FATCA and CRS.

Any U.S. Reportable Person and/or CRS Reportable Person will be reported to the ACD which will in turn pass on the Information to the relevant foreign tax authorities which, in particular under FATCA, includes the US Department of Treasury.

Should the SICAV fail to obtain the required Information and supporting documentary evidence from a shareholder, the SICAV is allowed, in its sole discretion, or may be required to take any action to comply with its obligations under the Luxembourg FATCA Regulations and the Luxembourg CRS Regulations. Such action (i) may include the disclosure to the ACD of the Information of the relevant shareholder and, if applicable, of the shareholder's Controlling Persons, and (ii) may potentially be charged with any taxes and penalties imposed on the SICAV attributable to such shareholder's failure to provide the Information and supporting documentation required.

Additionally, the SICAV may also, in its sole discretion, forcefully redeem any shareholder's holdings in the SICAV or reject subscriptions requests from any shareholder it deems may jeopardize the SICAV's Status.

Eligibility criteria of investors in the SICAV

The status of the SICAV under the Luxembourg FATCA Regulations and the Luxembourg CRS Regulations implies certain obligations and restrictions on prospective and existing shareholders of the SICAV as detailed hereafter.

To prevent the SICAV from incurring any liability or taxation or suffering any other disadvantage or constraint arising from the Luxembourg FATCA Regulations and/or the Luxembourg CRS Regulations, shares of the SICAV, in its own discretion, may only be offered to, sold to, transferred to or held by eligible shareholders. Eligible shareholders are:

- (iv) FFIs that do not qualify as NPFFI under the Luxembourg FATCA Regulations and FIs other than Investment Entities located in a non-CRS jurisdiction with Controlling Person(s) which is/are Reportable Persons under the Luxembourg CRS Regulations.

For the avoidance of doubt, because of the SICAV's Status, certain investors will not be accepted by the SICAV as shareholders. In particular, individuals and Passive NFFEs/NFEs will not be accepted as shareholders. Such investors are invited to subscribe through an FFI/FI that does not qualify as NPFFI.

Should it nonetheless happen, for example because of a change of circumstances, that a shareholder qualifies as non-eligible shareholder, the SICAV may take any action including (i) the disclosure to the ACD of the Information of the relevant shareholder and (ii) the compulsory

The management fee is equal to maximum 1% p.a. within the time period specified in the Factsheet, calculated on the average net assets of the respective share class of the SICAV determined on each Valuation Day (as such term is defined in the Prospectus), for time period during the continuance of the Management Agreement (in the case of the first period, the time period commencing on the day on which the shares are first issued). Unless otherwise specified in the factsheet of the SICAV, the management fee shall be paid within ten Business Days after the end of each time period (in the relevant currency of the SICAV, annualised using an actual/365 daycount).

23. PERFORMANCE FEE

The AIFM will be entitled to a performance fee equal to maximum 20% of the increase in the Net Asset Value of the relevant Class in issue in respect of each Performance Period but only to the extent that such increase exceeds the High Water Mark (both as defined below), (the "Performance Fee").

The Performance Fee of the relevant Share class is calculated as a maximum of 20% of, if positive of (① - ② + ③) where :

① is the aggregate Net Asset Value of the relevant Share class at the end of that calendar year;

② is the High Water Mark;

The Performance Index is the 1-month Euribor index defined as the arithmetic figure of the 1-month Euribor at 11:00 a.m. (Brussels time) as appears on page : Bloomberg EUR001M Index (or Reuters EURIBOR01) on the first Business Day of each month.

The Performance Fee is calculated on a High Water Mark basis, which means that, if there are net losses in Shares during a calculation period, such losses are carried forward in the following calculation period(s), and must be recovered before a further performance fee may be paid, taking into account the gains and losses attributable to subscribed and redeemed Shares occurred in previous calculated periods.

The Performance Fee will normally be payable to the Management Company in arrears within 30 days of the end of each Calculation Period.

The Performance Period means the period beginning on the first calendar day of January and ending on the last calendar day of each December.

The High Water Mark means the previous highest aggregate Net Asset Value of the relevant Share class at the time of the last performance fee payment (or in the event no prior performance fee has been paid, the initial investment assets) monthly compounded at a rate equal to the Performance Index (annualized using the actual/360 daycount method).

The Management Fee is paid to the AIFM whether or not the SICAV generates a profit. However, the performance fee is payable only on cumulative profits achieved from asset selection and trading.

Any fees paid will not be reimbursed despite net trading losses which might occur in subsequent twelve-month periods but no further performance fees will be payable until the SICAV recoups the trading losses (except trading losses attributable to redeemed Shares) and achieves additional trading gains.

When the SICAV invests in funds managed by the same AIFM, these funds will not charge any placement fee on the assets invested by the SICAV. Moreover, the AIFM will not charge twice the performance fee.

In the case of a conversion, shares which are acquired pursuant to transfer will be treated as if they were issued on the date of the acquisition for these purposes. In the event that a Shareholder redeems its Shares prior to the end of a Performance Period, any accrued but unpaid Performance Fee in respect of such Shares will be deducted from the repurchase proceeds and paid to the AIFM promptly thereafter. The Performance Fee in respect of such Performance Period will be calculated by reference to the Net Asset Value before the deduction of any accrued Performance Fees.

The Management Company may, from time to time, and in its absolute discretion, decide to rebate all or part of the Management Fee and/or Performance Fee to any Shareholder. Any such rebates may be applied in paying cash to the Shareholder.

If CIGOGNE MANAGEMENT S.A. ceases to be the AIFM of the Fund (either by termination of any related agreement or by termination of the appointment) before 31 December in any year, the Performance Fee in respect of the then current Performance Period will be calculated and paid as though the date of termination were the end of the relevant period.

SECTION I. – NAME – REGISTERED OFFICE – TERM – OBJECT OF THE COMPANY

Art. 1. Name

There exists among the subscribers and all those who subsequently become shareholders a “société d'Investissement à Capital Variable” operating in the form of an investment company with variable share capital with multiple sub-funds (a “SICAV”) bearing the name of CIGOGNE CLO ARBITRAGE (the “Company”). The Company is subject to the provisions of the Law of 13 February 2007 relating to specialised investment funds (the “Law of 13 February 2007”).

Art. 2. Registered office

The Company's registered office is established in the City of Luxembourg in the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg. By simple decision of the board of directors, the Company may set up branch establishments or offices both in the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg and in other countries. Within the district of Luxembourg, the registered office may be relocated by simple decision of the board of directors.

In the event that the board of directors considers that extraordinary events of a political or military nature that may compromise ordinary operations at the registered office or smooth communication with the registered office or from the registered office to locations abroad have arisen or appear imminent, the board may temporarily transfer the registered office abroad until complete cessation of the abnormal circumstances; such a temporary measure shall not, however, have any effect on the nationality of the Company which, notwithstanding this temporary transfer, shall remain a Luxembourg company.

Art. 3. Term

The Company is established for an indefinite period. It may be dissolved by a decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders ruling in the same way as for an amendment to the articles of association.

Art. 4. Object

The exclusive object of the Company is to invest the funds at its disposal in various securities and other authorized assets, with the aim of spreading the investment risks and enabling shareholders to benefit from the results of the management of its portfolio. The Company may take all measures and perform all operations that it deems expedient in terms of achieving or furthering its object in the broadest sense within the framework of the Law of 13 February 2007.

SECTION II. – SHARE CAPITAL – FEATURES OF THE SHARES

Art. 5. Share capital

The initial capital of thirty-one thousand (31.000) EUR has been fully paid-up by way of cash contribution. The initial share capital of the Company is represented by 3.1 (three point one) fully-paid up shares without par value and shall at all times be equal to the equivalent in EUR of its net assets, as defined in Article 12 of these articles of association.

The minimum subscribed capital of the Company shall at all times be equal to the minimum fixed by current regulations, i.e. the equivalent of one million two hundred fifty thousand (1.250.000) EUR. This minimum has to be reached within a period of twelve months following the approval of the Company by the Luxembourg supervisory authority. The Company's capital is expressed in EUR.

Art. 6. Classes of shares

The board of directors may decide to create one or more classes of shares which may differ, among others, with respect to the sales and/or redemption commission, the advisory or

CIGOGNE CLO ARBITRAGE

subject to the Luxembourg Law of 13 February 2007

management fee, the performance fee, the currency hedge policy, the distribution policy (distribution shares, capitalization shares).

The features of the shares offered for subscription are described in the issuing document of the Company.

A distribution share is a share, which normally confers upon its holder the right to receive a dividend payment in cash.

A capitalisation share is a share that does not normally confer upon its holder the right to receive a dividend but the portion due to the holder of the amount to be distributed is capitalised for the benefit of the holders of the capitalisation shares.

The board of directors may also decide to split or to reverse split a share class of the Company.

The shares of the various classes confer on their holders the same rights, in particular with regard to voting rights at General Meetings of shareholders. According to the provisions of Article 7 of these articles of association, the right to vote can only be exercised for a whole number of shares.

The articles of these articles of association apply mutatis mutandis to the different classes of shares described in the Company's issuing document.

Art. 7. Form of the shares

Shares are issued without par value and are fully paid-up. All shares, whatever the class into which they fall, are issued in registered form in the name of the subscriber, evidenced by entry of the subscriber in the register of shareholders, in which case a registered share certificate may be provided at the express request of the shareholder. If a shareholder requires more than one registered certificate for his shares, the cost of additional certificates may be charged to him.

In the case the shares are held by a bare owner (nu-proprétaire) and a usufructuary (usufruitier), the voting rights and rights to dividends belong to the usufructuary.

The register of shareholders shall be held by the Company or by one or more persons appointed to this effect by the Company. The entry in the register must indicate the name of each holder of registered shares, their elected place of residence or domicile, the number of registered shares they hold, and the amount paid for each of the shares. Any transfer of registered shares, whether inter vivos or causa mortis, shall be recorded in the register of shareholders, and the entry shall be recorded by one or more executives or authorized agents of the Company, or by one or more other persons appointed to this effect by the board of directors.

The transfer of registered shares shall be undertaken by submitting to the Company certificates representing the shares, together with all the other transfer documents required by the Company or, if no certificates have been issued, by a written transfer declaration entered in the register of shareholders, dated and signed by the transferor and the transferee or by their agents providing evidence of the requisite authority.

Any shareholder wishing to obtain registered share certificates must provide to the Company an address to which all communications and information may be sent. This address shall also be entered in the register of shareholders.

If a registered shareholder does not provide the Company with an address, this may be noted in the register of shareholders and the address of the shareholder shall be deemed to be the registered office of the Company or any other address that the Company may specify, until another address is provided by the shareholder. The shareholder may at any time have the address in the register of shareholders changed by written notice sent to the registered office of the Company, or to any other address which may be stipulated by the Company.

Share certificates shall be signed by two directors. The two signatures may be handwritten, printed, or affixed by stamp. However, one of the signatures may be affixed by a person appointed to this effect by the board of directors, in which case it must be handwritten. The Company may issue temporary certificates in the forms determined by the board of directors.

subject to the Luxembourg Law of 13 February 2007

Shares may be issued in fractions of shares up to one thousandth of a share.

The rights relating to fractions of shares are exercised pro rata to the fraction held by the shareholder, with the exception of the voting right, which may only be exercised in respect of a whole number of shares.

If a shareholder can demonstrate to the Company that his share certificate has been lost or destroyed, a duplicate may be issued at his request under the conditions and subject to the guarantees specified by the Company, usually in the form of an undertaking, without prejudice to any other form of guarantee which the Company may choose. From the time of issue of the new certificate, endorsed to show that it is a duplicate, the original certificate shall no longer have any value.

Damaged share certificates may be exchanged by the Company, which will then cancel them immediately. The Company may at its discretion charge the shareholder for the cost of the duplicate or the new certificate as well as all documented expenses incurred by the Company in relation to the issue and entry in the register or to destruction of the old certificate.

The Company only recognises one holder per share. If there are several holders of one share, the Company shall be entitled to suspend exercise of all rights attached thereto until such time as a single person has been designated as being the owner of the share in question.

Art. 8. Issue of shares

The board of directors is authorized, at any time and without limitation, to issue additional shares, fully paid-up, without reserving to the former shareholders any preferential subscription right.

If the Company offers shares for subscription, the price per share offered shall be equal to the net asset value of that share as determined in accordance with Article 12 of these articles of association. Subscriptions are accepted on the basis of the price on such Valuation Day, defined in Article 13 of these articles of association, as detailed in the issuing document of the Company. This price shall be increased by the commissions stipulated in the Company's offering document. The beneficiary of these commissions shall be disclosed in the issuing document of the Company. Unless otherwise stated in the issuing document of the Company, such price is payable at the latest on the applicable Valuation Day or, if such Valuation Day is not a business day in Luxembourg, on the first business day in Luxembourg preceding such Valuation Day.

Shares shall only be issued to well-informed investors within the meaning of Article 2, Chapter 1 of the Law of 13 February 2007 and on acceptance of the subscription and receipt of the price. Following acceptance of the subscription and receipt of the price, the shares subscribed shall be allocated to the subscriber.

Unless otherwise stated in the issuing document of the Company, only subscription requests expressed in amounts will be accepted and subscription orders expressed in number of shares will be rejected.

Shares are only issued upon acceptance of the subscription and receipt of the price payable in accordance with Article 8 of these articles of association.

Subscription requests accepted by the Company are final and binding upon the subscriber, except in case of suspension of the calculation of the net asset value of the shares of the Company. However, the board of directors may consent to a modification or cancellation of a subscription request in case of manifest error from the subscriber and provided such modification and cancellation is not detrimental to the other existing shareholders of the Company.

CIGOGNE CLO ARBITRAGE
An investment company with variable share capital (SICAV)
subject to the Luxembourg Law of 13 February 2007

Subject to receipt of the full subscription price, delivery of the shares shall take place once the calculation of the net asset value of the Shares of the Company has been performed in accordance with Article 12 of these articles of association.

Subscriptions may also be made by contribution of transferable securities and authorized assets other than cash, subject to the consent of the board of directors who may refuse its consent at its own discretion and without justification. These securities and other authorized assets must comply with the investment policy and investment restrictions of the Company as detailed in the issuing document of the Company. They shall be valued in accordance with the valuation principles for assets set out in Article 12 of these articles of association. In addition, in accordance with the Law of 10 August 1915, as amended, relating to Commercial Companies, such contributions in kind shall be the subject of a report prepared by the Company's auditor. The costs in relation to subscription through contribution in kind shall be borne by the Subscriber.

The board of directors may delegate to any director or any executive or other agent of the Company duly authorized to this effect, the task of accepting subscriptions and receiving payment of the price of the new shares to be issued.

All new share subscriptions must be fully paid up, failing which they shall be null and void, and the shares issued shall enjoy the same interest or dividends as the shares existing on the date of issue.

The board of directors may refuse subscription orders, at any time, at its discretion and without justification.

Art. 9. Redemption of shares

All shareholders are entitled to ask the Company at any time to repurchase some or all of the shares which they hold, subject to the terms, conditions and restrictions as decided by the board of directors and as disclosed in the issuing document of the Company.

The redemption price of a share shall be equal to its net asset value, as determined for each class of share in accordance with Article 12 of these articles of association. Depending on the Redemption frequency for each class of Share as provided in the Prospectus, Redemptions are based on the price established on the relevant Valuation Day. The redemption price may be reduced by a redemption commission specified in the Company's offering document. The beneficiary of these commission shall be disclosed in the issuing document of the Company.

The redemption price shall normally be paid within the usual time limits as laid down in the Prospectus once the applicable Net Asset Value is calculated in accordance to Article 12 of the Articles of Incorporation. The board of directors of the Company however reserves the right to defer any payment of redemption proceeds until that time when the Company has received sufficient cash to honour the payment of the redemption proceeds.

Redemption requests accepted by the Company are final and binding upon the shareholder, except in case of suspension of the calculation of the net asset value of the shares of the Company. However, the board of directors may consent to a modification or cancellation of a redemption request in case of manifest error from the redeeming shareholder and provided such modification and cancellation is not detrimental to the other existing shareholders of the Company.

Neither the board of directors nor the custodian bank of the Company may be held liable for any failure to pay redemption proceeds resulting from the application of any exchange control or other circumstances that are outside their control, which would restrict transfer of the proceeds from the redemption of the shares or make it impossible.

All redemption applications must be presented by the shareholder in writing to the registered office of the Company in Luxembourg or to another legal entity authorized to execute the redemption of shares. Applications must state the name of the investor, the class of shares, the number of shares or the amount to be redeemed, as well as the payment instructions for paying the redemption price.

CIGOGNE CLO ARBITRAGE
An investment company with variable share capital (SICAV)
subject to the Luxembourg Law of 13 February 2007

Before the redemption price can be paid, redemption applications must be accompanied by the share certificate(s) in the due and proper form (if certificates were issued).

Shares repurchased by the Company shall be cancelled.

With the agreement of the shareholder(s) concerned, the board of directors of the Company may from time to time decide to execute redemptions of shares by means of payments in kind of securities held by the Company. By complying with the principle of equal treatment of shareholders, the board of directors of the Company may allocate to shareholders who have requested redemption of their shares and agreed to receive a payment in kind, securities from the portfolio of the Company, 1) the composition of which shall be determined by the board of directors of the Company and 2) the value of which shall be equal to the redemption price of the shares and 3) the value of which shall be audited by the Company's auditor. The costs in relation to redemptions in kind shall be borne by the concerned shareholders pro rata to the value of their shares redeemed and deducted from the redemption price.

Any payment in kind of securities shall be evaluated in a report drafted by the Company's statutory auditor and shall be made on an equitable basis.

The board of directors may delegate to any director or any executive or other authorized agent of the Company, duly authorized to this effect, the task of accepting and executing redemptions and of paying the price of the shares redeemed.

In the event of redemption and/or conversion in a sub-fund bearing on 10% or more of the net assets of the sub-fund or a threshold below 10% deemed critical by the board of directors, this latter may either:

- postpone the payment of the redemption price of such requests to a date at which the Company will have sold the necessary assets and it will have the proceeds from such sales;
- postpone whole or part of such requests to a later Valuation Day determined by the board of directors, when the Company will have sold the necessary assets, taking into consideration the interests of all shareholders and when it will have the proceeds from such sales. These requests shall be treated with priority over any other request.

In addition, the Company can postpone the payment of all requests for redemption and/or conversion for a sub-fund:

- if any one of the stock exchanges and/or other markets on which the sub-fund concerned were broadly exposed, in the opinion of the board of directors, were closed or;
- if transactions on stock exchanges and/or other markets on which the sub-fund concerned were broadly exposed, in the opinion of the board of directors, were restricted or suspended.

If, following the acceptance and execution of a redemption order, the value of the remaining shares held by the shareholder in the sub-fund or in the class of shares falls below a minimum amount as may be determined by the board of directors for the sub-fund or the class of shares, the board of directors can rightfully believe that the shareholder has requested the redemption of all of its shares held in that sub-fund or class of shares. The board of directors can, in this case at its sole discretion, execute a forced redemption of the remaining shares held by the shareholder in the sub-fund or the class concerned.

Art. 10. Conversion of shares

Subject to any restrictions that may be implemented by the board of directors, all shareholders are entitled to switch from one class of shares to another class of shares and to request conversion of the shares they hold in a given class of shares into shares of another class of shares.

CIGOGNE CLO ARBITRAGE
An investment company with variable share capital (SICAV)
subject to the Luxembourg Law of 13 February 2007

A conversion of shares is based on the net asset values, as determined according to Article 12 of these articles of association, of the class(es) of shares on the first common Valuation Day following the date of receipt of the conversion applications and taking into account the exchange rate in force on the Valuation Day, if the currencies of the two share classes are different. The board of directors may impose any restrictions it deems necessary on the frequency of conversions and may render conversions subject to payment of costs, the amount of which it shall determine on a reasonable basis.

All conversion applications must be presented by the shareholder in writing to the registered office of the Company or to another legal entity delegated for the conversion of shares. The application must state the name of the investor, the class of share held, the number of shares or the amount to be converted, as well as the class of share to be obtained in exchange. It must be accompanied by any share certificates issued. If registered share certificates have been issued for the shares in the original class, the new certificates shall not be prepared until the old certificates have been received by the Company.

Conversion requests accepted by the Company are final and binding upon the shareholder, except in case of suspension of the calculation of the net asset value of the shares of the Company. However, the board of directors may consent to a modification or cancellation of a conversion request in case of manifest error from the converting shareholder and provided such modification and cancellation is not detrimental to the other existing shareholders of the Company.

The board of directors may decide to allocate fractions of shares produced by the conversion, or to pay the corresponding cash difference for such fractions to the shareholders who requested conversion.

Shares which have been converted into other shares will be cancelled.

The board of directors may delegate to any director, executive or other authorized agent of the Company, duly authorized to this effect, the task of accepting and executing conversions.

Art. 11. Restrictions on share ownership

The Company may restrict or prevent ownership of shares in the Company by any natural person or legal entity and may in particular prohibit ownership of shares by nationals of the United States of America.

The Company will automatically refuse to issue shares to investors who, in the opinion of the board of directors, cannot be considered as informed investors within the meaning of Article 2, Chapter 1 of the Law of 13 February 2007.

The Company may further enact any restrictions that it deems expedient with a view to ensuring that no share of the Company shall be acquired or held by (a) a person in breach of the laws or requirements of any country or governmental authority or (b) a person whose circumstances, in the view of the board of directors, may lead the Company to incur taxes or other financial disadvantages which it would otherwise not have incurred.

To this end:

(1) The Company may refuse to issue shares or register the transfer of shares if it appears that such an issue or transfer would or could lead to allocation of ownership of the share to a national of the United States of America.

(2) The Company may ask any person on the register of shareholders or any other person who applies to have a share transfer registered to provide it with all the information and certificates it deems necessary, where appropriate supported by an affidavit, with a view to determining whether the shares belong or will belong in terms of actual ownership to a national of the United States of America.

CIGOGNE CLO ARBITRAGE
An investment company with variable share capital (SICAV)
subject to the Luxembourg Law of 13 February 2007

(3) The Company may compulsorily repurchase the shares if it appears that a national of the United States of America, either singly or together with other persons, is a holder of shares in the Company. In such event, the following procedure shall be applied:

(a) The Company shall send a letter of notice (hereinafter referred to as “the Redemption Notice”) to the shareholder holding the shares or appearing in the register as being the owner of the shares; the Redemption Notice shall specify the shares to be repurchased, the redemption price to be paid and the place where such price shall be payable. The Redemption Notice may be sent to the shareholder by registered letter addressed to his last known address or to that entered in the register of shareholders. The shareholder in question shall be obliged to return the certificate(s) representing the shares specified in the Redemption Notice without delay.

(b) From the close of business on the day specified in the Redemption Notice, the shareholder in question shall cease to be owner of the shares specified in the Redemption Notice; if the shares are registered shares, his name will be deleted from the register; if the shares are bearer shares, the certificate(s) representing the shares shall be cancelled in the books of the Company.

(c) The price at which the shares specified in the Redemption Notice are repurchased (“the Redemption Price”) shall be equal to the net asset value of the shares of the Company immediately preceding the Redemption Notice. With effect from the date of the Redemption Notice, the shareholder in question shall lose all rights as a shareholder.

(d) The payment will be effected in the currency determined by the board of directors. The price will be deposited by the Company with a bank, in Luxembourg or elsewhere, specified in the Redemption Notice, which will forward it to the shareholder in question in return for delivery of the certificates indicated in the Redemption Notice. Following payment of the price under these terms and conditions, no person having an interest in the shares indicated in the Redemption Notice may assert any right regarding the shares nor may they instigate any action against the Company and its assets other than the right of the shareholder appearing as the owner of the shares to receive the price deposited (excluding interest) at the bank in return for delivery of the certificates.

(e) The exercise by the Company of the powers conferred under the present Article may under no circumstances be called into question or invalidated on the grounds that there is insufficient proof of ownership of the shares by a particular person, or that a share belonged to a person other than the person cited by the Company when sending the Redemption Notice, on the sole condition that the Company exercises its powers in good faith.

(4) At any General Meeting of shareholders, the Company may deny voting rights to a national of the United States of America or any shareholder who has received a Redemption Notice in respect of his shares.

The term “national of the United States of America”, as used in these articles of association, shall mean any national, citizen or resident of the United States of America or any territory or possession under the jurisdiction of the United States of America, or persons ordinarily residing there (including successors of all persons or companies or Incorporations established or organised there).

Art. 12. Calculation of the net asset value of shares

The net asset value of a share shall be determined in the currency chosen by the board of directors for the relevant share class by a figure obtained by dividing on the Valuation Day, defined in Article 13 of these articles of association, the net assets attributable to the relevant share class by the number of shares issued and in circulation for such share class.

The net assets of the Company are constituted by the assets of the Company as defined below, less the liabilities of the Company as defined below, on the Valuation Day on which the net asset value of the shares is determined.

I. The assets of the Company comprise the following:

a) All cash in hand or held at banks, including interest accrued and not paid;

CIGOGNE CLO ARBITRAGE
An investment company with variable share capital (SICAV)
subject to the Luxembourg Law of 13 February 2007

- b) All bills and notes payable on demand and accounts receivable, including proceeds from the sale of securities, the price of which has not yet been collected;
- c) All securities, units, shares, bonds, options or subscription rights, and other investments and transferable securities which are the property of the Company;
- d) All dividends and distributions due to the Company in cash or securities insofar as the Company could reasonably have knowledge thereof (the Company may however make adjustments in view of fluctuations in the market value of transferable securities on the basis of operations such as ex dividend and ex rights trading);
- e) All interest accrued and not paid produced by the securities which are the property of the Company, unless however this interest is included in the principal amount of these securities;
- f) The costs of incorporation of the Company insofar as they have not been amortised;
- g) All other assets, of any kind, including prepaid expenses.

II. The value of these assets shall be determined as follows:

The securities instruments and other assets as well as liabilities will be valued at fair market value as determined in good faith by the board of directors of the Company and the valuation shall be made according to the following guidelines.

- a) The value of cash in hand or on deposit, of bills and notes payable on demand and accounts receivable, prepaid expenses, dividends and interest announced or due for payment and not yet collected is formed by the nominal value of such assets, unless however it appears unlikely that this value can be collected; in the latter instance, the value will be determined by deducting an amount that the Company deems appropriate to reflect the real value of these assets.
- b) The value of securities and instruments which are quoted or traded on a stock exchange shall be determined according to the last quoted or traded price known on the principal market for each security or instrument at the relevant Valuation Day.
- c) The value of securities and instruments which are traded on another regulated market, functioning regularly, recognised and open to the public, shall be determined according to the last traded price known at the relevant Valuation Day.
- d) Money-market instruments and fixed-income securities may be valued on the basis of the amortised cost, a method which consists, following purchase, of taking into account straight-line amortisation in order to reach the redemption price at maturity of the security provided the residual maturity of such instruments and securities is less than 3 months or equal to 3 months. This method involves valuing a security at its cost and thereafter assuming a constant amortization to maturity of any discount or premium regardless of the impact of fluctuating interest rates on the market value of the security or other instrument. While this method provides certainty in valuation, it may result in periods during which value as determined by amortized cost, is higher or lower than the price the Company would receive if it sold the securities or instruments.
- e) The value of the securities representing units or shares of an undertaking for collective investment shall be determined in accordance with their last official net asset value per unit or share or according to their last estimated net asset value if this is more recent than the official net asset value, provided that the Company is assured that the valuation method used for this estimate is consistent with that utilised for the calculation of the official net asset value.
- f) the valuation of derivatives traded over-the-counter (OTC), such as swaps, futures, forward or option contracts not traded on exchanges or on other recognized markets, will be based on their net liquidating value determined, pursuant to the policies established by the board of directors on the basis of recognized financial models in the market and in a consistent manner for each category of contracts. The net liquidating value of a derivative position is to be understood as being equal to the net unrealized profit/loss with respect to the relevant position;

CIGOGNE CLO ARBITRAGE
An investment company with variable share capital (SICAV)
subject to the Luxembourg Law of 13 February 2007

g) Insofar as the securities or instruments in the portfolio on the Valuation Day are not listed or traded on a stock exchange or on another regulated market, functioning regularly, recognised and open to the public, or in the event that, for securities, instruments listed and traded on a stock exchange or on another market or securities representing units or shares of an undertaking for collective investment, the price determined pursuant to paragraphs b), c) or e) is not representative of the real value of the securities, instruments or securities representing units or shares of an undertaking for collective investment, the valuation shall be estimated prudently and in good faith.

h) Values and liabilities expressed in a currency other than the EUR will be converted at the rates last quoted by major banks or any relevant authority recognised to be competent for. If such quotations are not available, the rate of exchange will be determined in good faith by or under procedures established by the board of directors of the Company.

III. The liabilities of the Company comprise the following:

a) All loans, bills outstanding and accounts payable;

b) All administration costs outstanding or due, including the remuneration to the investment manager, the custodian bank, the central administration, the domiciliary agent and to other representatives and agents of the Company;

c) All known obligations, whether outstanding or not yet payable, including all contractual obligations due which relate to payments either in cash or in kind, including the amount of any dividends announced by the Company but not yet paid, where the Valuation Day coincides with the date on which determination of the person entitled thereto is undertaken;

d) An appropriate provision for tax on capital and income, accrued to the Valuation Day and fixed by the board of directors, and other provisions authorized or approved by the board of directors;

e) All other obligations of the Company, of any kind, with the exception of the liabilities represented by the Company's own funds. For the valuation of the amount of these liabilities, the Company may take account of administrative and other expenses which are regular or periodic in nature, using an estimate for the year or any other period and allocating the amount pro rata to the fractions of that period.

IV. The net assets attributable to all the shares shall be formed by the assets less the liabilities at close of business on the Valuation Day on which the net asset value of the shares is determined.

The net asset value of the shares of the Company determined is final and binding on the investors subscribing, redeeming or converting shares of the Company and on existing shareholders of the Company, except when the net asset value of the shares is subject to a material error as defined in applicable regulations in Luxembourg.

In cases where subsequently to the close of business on the relevant Valuation Day, a material change occurs in the quotations in the markets on which a substantial portion of the investments of the Company are dealt or quoted or a material change occurs with regards to the value of the liabilities of the Company, the board of directors of the Company may, but is not obliged to proceed to a calculation of an adjusted net asset value of the shares of the Company by taking into account the relevant changes. The adjusted net asset value of the shares of the Company will be binding on the investors subscribing, redeeming or converting shares of the Company and on existing shareholders of the Company.

V. For the purposes of this Article:

1. Each share of the Company which is in the process of being redeemed pursuant to Article 9 of these articles of association shall be considered as a share which is issued and existing until the close of business on the Valuation Day applying to redemption of that share and its price shall, with effect from this Date and until such time as its price is paid, be considered as a liability of the Company;

CIGOGNE CLO ARBITRAGE
An investment company with variable share capital (SICAV)
subject to the Luxembourg Law of 13 February 2007

2. Each share to be issued by the Company in accordance with subscription applications received shall be treated as being issued with effect from the close of business on the Valuation Day on which its issue price has been determined, and its price shall be treated as an amount due to the Company until the Company has received it;

3. All securities, instruments, cash balances and other assets of the Company expressed in a currency other than in the EUR shall be valued taking account of the last rates quoted by major banks or any relevant authority recognised to be competent for on the date of determination of the net asset value of the shares; and

4. On the Valuation Day, as far as possible, any purchase or sale of securities and instruments contracted by the Company shall be effective.

VI. Insofar as and for the time that shares of different classes have been issued and are in circulation, the value of the net assets, established pursuant to the provisions in (I) to (IV) of this Article, shall be apportioned over all the shares of each class.

If subscriptions of shares, redemptions of shares, conversions of shares or payments of dividends take place in respect of shares of a specific class, the net assets attributable to all the shares of that class shall, as the case will be, be increased or reduced by the net amounts received or paid by the Company on the basis of those subscriptions of shares, redemptions of shares, conversions of shares or payments of dividends.

The net asset value of a share shall be determined in the currency chosen by the board of directors for the relevant share class by a figure obtained by dividing the net assets attributable to the relevant share class by the number of shares issued and in circulation for such share class.

Art. 13. Frequency and temporary suspension of the calculation of the net asset value of shares, issues, redemptions and conversions of shares.

I. Frequency of net asset value calculation

The net asset value of shares, including the relevant issue price and redemption price, shall be determined periodically by the Company or by a third party appointed by the Company, at least once per year, and at a frequency decided by the board of directors of the Company and at such days as disclosed in the issuing document of the Company (each such day being referred to as a "Valuation Day").

II. Temporary suspension of the net asset value calculation

Without prejudice to legal reasons, the Company may suspend calculation of the net asset value of shares and the issue, redemption and conversion of its shares, if the following circumstances arise:

- During all or part of a period in which any of the principal stock exchanges or other markets on which a substantial part of the portfolio is listed is closed for a reason other than normal holiday periods or during which operations thereon are restricted or suspended;

- If an emergency situation exists as a result of which the Company cannot access the assets or value them;

- If the means of communication necessary for determining the price, the value of the assets or the stock exchange prices under the conditions defined in the first bullet point above are out of service;

- During any period when the Company is unable to repatriate funds in order to make payments on the redemption of shares or during which transfers of funds involved in the sale or acquisition of investments or payments due for the redemption of shares cannot, in the opinion of the board of directors, be effected at normal rates of exchange;

- In the event of publication of a notice convening a General Meeting at which the winding up and liquidation of the Company is proposed.

CIGOGNE CLO ARBITRAGE
An investment company with variable share capital (SICAV)
subject to the Luxembourg Law of 13 February 2007

The Company shall notify shareholders seeking subscription, redemption or conversion of shares of any such suspension of the calculation of the net asset value and they shall be entitled to cancel their order. Other shareholders will be informed in writing.

SECTION III. – ADMINISTRATION AND SUPERVISION OF THE COMPANY

Art. 14. Directors

The Company is administered by a board of directors consisting of at least three members, who need not be shareholders. The directors shall be appointed by the General Meeting of shareholders for a period not exceeding six years.

Any director may be removed from office with or without cause or be replaced at any time by a decision of the General Meeting of shareholders.

In the event that a post of director becomes vacant following death, resignation or otherwise, a replacement director may be temporarily appointed in accordance with legal provisions. In this event, a definitive election process shall be conducted at the next General Meeting.

Art. 15. Meetings of the board of directors

The board of directors shall choose from among its members a chairman who must be a natural person. It may also appoint a vice-chairman and choose a secretary, who need not be a member of the board. Meetings of the board of directors are convened by the chairman or, in place of the chairman, by two directors, as often as required in the interests of the Company, at the place indicated in the notice of the meeting. Meetings may be convened by any means, including verbal.

The board of directors may only validly deliberate and adopt resolutions if at least half its members are present or represented.

Any director may authorise one of his colleagues to represent him at a meeting of the board of directors and vote in his place on matters on the agenda, such authority to be given in writing, by letter, fax, e-mail or any other means approved by the board of directors. One director may represent several of his colleagues.

Decisions shall be taken by a majority of votes. In the event of parity of votes, the person chairing the meeting shall have the casting vote.

In urgent instances, the directors may cast their vote on matters on the agenda by simple letter, telegram or e-mail or by any other means approved by the board of directors.

Directors may participate in a meeting of the board of directors by telephone conference call, videoconference, or other means of communication that enable them to be identified. These means of communication must satisfy technical criteria guaranteeing effective participation in the meeting of the board of directors, and the meeting's deliberations must be transmitted without interruption. Any meeting held by such remote means of communication is deemed to have been held at the Company's registered office.

The deliberations of the board of directors shall be recorded in minutes signed by all directors attending or by the chairman or, in his place, by the person who chaired the meeting. Copies or extracts for production in court or elsewhere shall be signed by the chairman or by two directors.

A resolution signed by all members of the board of directors shall have the same value as a resolution taken at a meeting of the board of directors. Such resolution shall consist of one or more documents containing the resolution and signed that, taken together, constitute the resolution. They may be proved by post, fax, scan, telecopy or other means that is approved by the board of directors.

Copies or extracts of minutes or resolutions for production in court or elsewhere shall be signed by the chairman or by two directors.

Art. 16. Powers of the board of directors

The board of directors has extensive powers to manage the business of the Company and conduct conveyances and administrative acts coming under the scope of the Company's object, subject to compliance with the investment policy pursuant to Article 4 of these articles of association.

All acts which are not expressly reserved for the General Meeting of shareholders by law or by the articles of association shall come under the sphere of authority of the board of directors.

Art. 17. Commitment of the Company in relation to third parties

In relation to third parties, the Company shall be validly committed by the joint signature of two directors or by the single signature of any persons to whom such powers of signature have been delegated by the board of directors.

Art. 18. Delegation of powers

The board of directors may delegate the powers relating to daily management of the business of the Company, either to one or several directors or to one or several other agents who need not be shareholders of the Company, subject to compliance with the provisions of Article 60 of the Law of 10 August 1915, as amended, relating to Commercial Companies.

Art. 19. Custodian bank

The Company shall conclude an agreement with a Luxembourg bank under the terms of which that bank shall assume the functions of custodian of the assets of the Company pursuant to the Law of 13 February 2007.

Art. 20. Personal interests of directors

No contract or other transaction between the Company and other companies or firms shall be affected or invalidated by the fact that one or more directors or authorized agents of the Company have an interest therein or is a director, partner, authorized agent or employee thereof. A director or authorized agent of the Company who at the same time performs the function of director, partner, authorized agent or employee of another company or firm with which the Company contracts or otherwise enters into business relations shall not on the basis of this connection with that company or firm be prevented from giving his opinion or from voting or acting with regard to any questions relating to such a contract or operation.

In the event that a director or authorized agent of the Company has a personal interest in a transaction of the Company, he shall inform the board of directors thereof and this declaration will be recorded in the minutes of the meeting. He shall not give an opinion or vote on that transaction. Shareholders shall be informed of the transaction and the associated personal interest at the next General Meeting of shareholders.

The term "personal interest" as used in the above paragraph shall not apply to relations or interests which may exist in any manner or capacity or on any basis, in relation to any company or legal entity which the board of directors may determine.

Art. 21. Indemnification of directors

The Company shall indemnify directors and authorized agents as well as their heirs, testamentary executors or legal administrators for the expenses reasonably incurred by them in relation to any action, procedure or process to which they are a party or in which they are involved due to the fact that they are or have been a director or authorized agent of the Company, or due to the fact that, at the request of the Company, they have been a director or authorized agent of another company in which the Company is a shareholder or creditor, insofar as they are not entitled to be indemnified by that other entity, except regarding matters in which they are subsequently convicted for serious negligence or misadministration under that action or procedure; in the event of out-of-court settlement, such indemnity shall only be granted if the Company is informed by its counsel that the person to be indemnified has not committed any dereliction of duty. This right to indemnification shall not exclude other individual rights held by such persons.

Art. 22. Supervision of the company

Pursuant to the Law of 13 February 2007, all aspects concerning the assets of the Company shall be subject to the control of an independent auditor. The auditor shall be appointed by the General Meeting of shareholders for a period exceeding not six years. The auditor may be replaced at any time, with or without cause, by the General Meeting of shareholders.

SECTION IV. – GENERAL MEETINGS

Art. 23. Representation

The General Meeting represents all shareholders. It has extensive powers to order, effect or ratify all acts relating to the operations of the Company.

Art. 24. Annual General Meeting

The General Meeting shall be convened by the board of directors.

It must be held within one month of a written request made to the board of directors by shareholders representing one tenth of the share capital specifying the items for the agenda.

One or more shareholders, together holding at least ten percent of the share capital, may ask the board of directors for one or more items to be included on the agenda of a General Meeting. Any such request must be sent to the Company's registered office by registered letter at least five days before the date of the General Meeting.

The Annual General Meeting shall be held in the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg at the place specified in the notice of meeting, as from 2017 on the second Wednesday of the month of May each year at 11.30 a.m.. If that day is a public holiday in Luxembourg, the Annual General Meeting shall be held on the first bank business day in Luxembourg thereafter. The Annual General Meeting may be held abroad if the board of directors determines on its sole authority that this is required by exceptional circumstances.

The General Meeting shall be convened observing the notice periods required by law, by a registered letter addressed to each of the registered shareholders.

In addition, the shareholders of each class of share may meet in a separate General Meeting, deliberating and deciding under the conditions of quorum and majority determined by the law in force with regard to the following matters:

1. Allocation of the annual net profit of their share class;
2. In the instances set out in Article 32 of the articles of association.

The matters dealt with at a General Meeting of shareholders shall be limited to the items on the agenda and matters relating to these items.

Art. 25. Meetings held without prior notice

Whenever all shareholders are present or represented and declare themselves to be duly convened and to have knowledge of the agenda submitted to them, they can, by unanimous decision, declare that they constitute a General Meeting that may validly decide upon the items on the agenda submitted to them.

Art. 26. Votes

CIGOGNE CLO ARBITRAGE
An investment company with variable share capital (SICAV)
subject to the Luxembourg Law of 13 February 2007

Each share, irrespective of the share class to which it belongs or the net asset value of such share, confers the right to one vote. Voting rights may only be exercised in respect of a whole number of shares. Fractions of shares are not taken into account when calculating the vote and quorum. Shareholders may arrange to be represented at General Meetings by proxies, who need not be shareholders, by granting them written power of attorney.

The board of directors may authorize, but is not obliged to authorize shareholders to participate in a General Meeting by telephone conference call, videoconference, or other means of communication that enable the shareholders to be identified. These means of communication must satisfy technical criteria guaranteeing effective participation in the General Meeting, and the General Meeting's deliberations must be transmitted without interruption. Any General Meeting held exclusively or partially by such remote means of communication is deemed to have been held at the Company's registered office.

Shareholders are entitled to vote by post using a form available from the Company's registered office. Forms which do not specify a vote in favour or against, or an abstention, are void. For the calculation of a quorum, only forms received by 4 p.m. on the banking day in Luxembourg proceeding the day of the General Meeting shall be taken into account.

The board of directors may determine all other conditions to be fulfilled by the shareholders for participation in General Meetings.

Art. 27. Quorum and majority

The General Meeting shall conduct its proceedings in accordance with the terms of the Law of 10 August 1915, as amended, relating to Commercial Companies.

Unless otherwise provided by law or by these articles of association, the decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be adopted by a simple majority of votes of the shareholders present and voting. Votes that are blank or not valid are not taken into account for the calculation of the majority required.

The nationality of the Company may be changed only with the unanimous consent of all shareholders.

SECTION V. – FINANCIAL YEAR – APPROPRIATION OF PROFIT

Art. 28. Financial year and currency of accounts

The financial year shall commence on January 1 each year and end on December 31 of the same year. The accounts of the Company will be established in EUR.

Pursuant to the provisions of the Law of 13 February 2007, the annual accounts of the Company shall be audited by an Independent Auditor appointed by the Company.

Art. 29. Distribution policy

The General Meeting of shareholders, on the recommendation of the board of directors, shall determine the amount of dividends to be distributed for dividend shares, within the limits specified in the Law of 13 February 2007.

In accordance with legal provisions, the board of directors may decide interim dividends.

The proportion of income and capital gains attributable to capitalisation shares shall be capitalised.

For share classes coming under the scope of application of Art. 6 §1d) of the Law of 21 June 2005 transposing into Luxembourg law the European Union Directive 2003/48/EC of 3 June 2003 regarding taxation of savings income in the form of interest payments, all interest income collected will be distributed to shareholders, after deduction of the due proportion of

CIGOGNE CLO ARBITRAGE
An investment company with variable share capital (SICAV)
subject to the Luxembourg Law of 13 February 2007

remuneration, fees, and expenses applicable to them, subject to compliance with the requirements of accounting law.

For distribution share classes, interim dividends may be declared and paid by the board of directors in respect of dividend shares, subject to compliance with the applicable statutory terms and conditions.

Dividends may be paid in the currency chosen by the board of directors, at the time and place specified by it and at the exchange rate applicable on the payment date. Any dividend declared which has not been claimed by its beneficiary within five years with effect from its allocation may no longer be claimed and shall revert to the Company. No interest shall be paid on a dividend declared by the Company and retained by it for collection by the beneficiary.

In exceptional circumstances, the board of directors may, at its discretion, decide to distribute one or more securities held in the portfolio, provided that such a distribution in kind applies to all shareholders, notwithstanding the class of share held by that shareholder. In such circumstances, shareholders will receive a portion of the assets assigned to the share class pro rata to the number of shares held by the shareholders of the appropriate share class.

Art. 30. Costs to be borne by the company

The Company shall bear all of its operating costs, in particular the following:

- The fees and reimbursement of costs of the board of directors;
- Remuneration of the investment managers, the custodian bank, the central administration, the domiciliary agent, agents entrusted with financial services, paying agents, the independent auditor, legal advisers of the Company and other advisers or agents whose services the Company may call upon;
- Brokerage fees;
- The costs of preparing, printing and distributing the offering document and annual audited interim reports;
- The printing of share certificates;
- The costs and expenses incurred in connection with the formation of the Company;
- The taxes, levies and government duties relating to its operations, including the Luxembourg "taxe d'abonnement";
- The fees and expenses linked to registration and maintenance of registration of the Company with government bodies and stock exchanges in Luxembourg and abroad;
- The costs of publication of the net asset value and subscription, redemption or conversion prices and of any other document including the preparation and printing in each language considered useful to shareholders;
- Costs for marketing the shares of the Company including marketing and publicity determined in good faith by the Company's board of directors;
- Legal costs incurred by the Company or, upon approval by the board of directors, legal costs incurred by the investment managers, the custodian bank, the central administration, the domiciliary agent, agents entrusted with financial services, paying agents, or other agents in the exercise of their respect duties towards the Company ;
- All extraordinary fees, including but not exclusively, legal costs, interest and the total amount of any tax, duty or similar charge imposed on the Company or its assets.

SECTION VI. – LIQUIDATION OF THE COMPANY

Art. 31. Winding up – Liquidation

The Company may be dissolved and put into liquidation by a decision of the General Meeting deciding pursuant to the provisions of Article 27 of the articles of association.

In the event that the share capital of the Company is less than two thirds of the minimum capital, the directors must submit the question to dissolve and put into liquidation the Company to the General Meeting, which shall decide without any conditions of quorum and decide by a simple majority of the shares represented at the Meeting. Votes that are blank or not valid are not taken into account for the calculation of the majority required.

If the share capital of the Company is less than one quarter of the minimum capital, the directors must submit the question to dissolve and put into liquidation the Company to the General Meeting, which shall decide without any conditions of quorum and the resolution to dissolve and put into liquidation the Company may be declared by shareholders holding one quarter of the shares represented at the Meeting.
